

Brockenhurst Cricket Club

Members & Guest Code of Conduct

All members and Guests of Brockenhurst Cricket Club will:

- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of every person within the context of cricket
- Treat everyone equally and not discriminate on the grounds of age, gender, disability, race, ethnic origin, nationality, colour, parental or marital status, religious belief, class or social background, sexual preference or political belief
- Not condone, or allow to go unchallenged, any form of discrimination if witnessed
- Display high standards of behaviour, acting thoughtfully, respectfully, nicely, kindly and fairly
- Promote the positive aspects of cricket, for example fair play
- Encourage all participants to learn the Laws and rules and play within them, always respecting the decisions of match officials
- Actively discourage unfair play, rule violations and arguing with match officials. Whilst respecting the decisions, questions in order to understand decisions are to be delivered politely and respectfully
- Recognise good performance not just match results
- Encourage and support each other in the team and show respect towards the team captain's leadership style and their choices
- Place the well-being and safety of children above the development of performance
- Ensure activities and appropriate for the age, maturity, experience and ability of the individual
- Warn each other of potential dangers
- Treat all equipment respectfully including club owned equipment
- Ensure all necessary safety equipment required is used and well fitted
- Respect children's opinions when making decisions about their participation in cricket
- Not smoke, drink or use banned substances while working with children at the club
- Not provide children with alcohol when they are under the care of the club
- Follow ECB guidelines set out in "Safe Hands – Cricket Policy for Safeguarding Children" and other relevant guidelines issued
- Report any concerns in relation to a child, following reporting procedures laid down by the ECB

Members and guests include all members and officers of the cricket club and all guests of those members and officers, as well as all individuals who watch/attend/participate/officiate in matches hosted by the club in whatever capacity.

Brockenhurst Cricket Club

Members & Guest Code of Conduct

In addition to the above, all club officials and appointed volunteers will:

- Have been appropriately vetted, if required
- Hold relevant qualifications and be covered by appropriate insurance
- Always work in an open environment (i.e. avoid private, or unobserved, situations and encourage an open environment) NB this includes the online world – club officers and volunteers are discouraged from online or other electronic communication with children – any such communication should be via parents
- Inform players and parents of the requirements of cricket
- Know and understand the ECB's "Safe Hands – Cricket's Policy for Safeguarding Children"
- Develop and appropriate working relationship with young players, based on mutual trust and respect
- Ensure physical contact is appropriate and necessary and is carried out within recommended guidelines with young players full consent and approval
- Not engage in any form of sexually related contact with a young player. This is strictly forbidden, as is sexual innuendo, flirting or inappropriate gestures and terms. The ECB adopts the Home Office guidelines. These recommend "people in positions of trust and authority do not have sexual relationships with 16-17 year olds in their care"
- Attend appropriate training to keep up to date with their role, especially with respect to safeguarding children.
